ABSTRACTED-PUB-NO: JP 11143669A *Joel et alBASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - The print system accepts request for specific printing jobs via a network, from individual customers. The system accesses centralized accounting subsystem that furnishes information in regard to prices applicable, and forwards billing details about executed work to a destination specified by the indenting customer.

USE - It finds application in centralized office systems served by a common document production center.

ADVANTAGE - It helps rationalize amortization of print center costs. DESCRIPTION OF DRAWING(S) - The figure shows schematic diagram of accounting system.
